Chief Colleen Mestas Announces New Public Information Officer

Effective Monday, April 8, 2013, Sergeant Osvaldo “Ozzie” Dominguez has been assigned as the Visalia Police Department’s newest Public Information Officer.

Sergeant Dominguez began his employment with the Visalia Police Department in 2005. Prior to his employment, he worked for the Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department where he worked a variety of assignments.

During Sergeant Dominguez’ employment with the Visalia Police Department, he has been assigned to the Patrol Division and Violent Crimes Unit. Additionally, he has served as the Department’s Spanish speaking Public Information Officer. In 2011, Sergeant Dominguez was promoted to Sergeant and was assigned as a Patrol Sergeant.

Sergeant Dominguez holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in History and a Master of Public Administration. He is also a 2009 graduate of the Visalia Chamber of Commerce’s Leadership Visalia program.

Sergeant Dominguez resides in Visalia with his wife and their two daughters.
