Details: On 2/8/14 @ 0130 hours Officers patrolling the Downtown area hear approximately 10 shots fired from the parking lot located at the south east corner of Locust and Center. Additional Officers responded to the scene and learned that there was a fight in the parking lot just before the shots were fired. Officers set up a perimeter and also requested the CHP helicopter to assist in the search. No suspects were located during that search, however multiple casings from at least two different firearms were recovered. Witnesses stated that as one group involved in the fight fled northbound shots were fired back toward the parking lot. No individuals were struck by the gunfire and no injuries were reported. Investigation continuing.
