Details: On 7-15-2014, at appx 1028 hours, Visalia Police Department Officers were dispatched to a report of a possible home invasion at a residence. After further investigation, it was determined there was no forced entry into the residence and the involved parties know each other. It was learned Ray Randle and Josh Green were involved in a disagreement over a debt. During the argument, Josh Green produced a firearm and shot Ray Randle. Ray Randle fled the scene on foot and was located a short distance away by responding officers. Ray Randle was transported to an area hospital where he was treated and released. The case is being investigated by the Visalia Police Department Violent Crimes Unit and will be forwarded to the Tulare County District Attorney's Office.
