Details: On listed date and time VPD officers responded to an "assault with a deadly weapon" call. The victim was struck by the suspect with an aluminum baseball bat, and suffered minor injuries, for an unknown reason. The suspect also smashed out a window in the V's vehicle and created a dangerous environment for multiple juveniles who were present during the incident. S fled in his vehicle to his residence and VPD patrol officers were able to locate him and the vehicle in the 2400 blk. of N. Clark. S/ was identified by witnesses and arrested for assault with a deadly weapon, child endangerment, driving under the influence and driving with a suspended license and vandalism. Further investigation showed that the suspect thought the victim had burglarized his residence and attacked the victim for that reason.

Arresting / Investigating Officer: VPD Patrol
