Details: On the above listed date and time, Visalia Police Department patrol officers were investigating a reckless driving/hit and run case in the area of N. Mooney Blvd. and W. Lark Ave. During the investigation, officers came in contact with the occupants of an apartment in the 2100 block of W. Lark. During that contact, officers located some Marijuana packaged for sale and an assault rifle. Patrol officers contacted the Visalia Police Department Narcotics detectives. Narcotics detectives responded and assisted in the investigation. As a result of the investigation, detectives served 3 search warrants in the 2100 block of W. Lark and 1 search warrant in the 300 block of E. Evergreen. As a result of those search warrants, detectives siezed 23 pounds of processed Marijuana packaged for sale, $52,000 in cash, 4 firearms and a large amount of concentrated cannabis that was packaged for sale. The above listed suspects were booked into the Tulare County Jail on the listed charges.
