Details: On 4-21-2017, at approximately 0534 hrs, officers responded to the 3800 block of S. Woodland, regarding an unknown person possibly on the roof of a residence. Upon arrival, officers were unable to locate anyone. As officers were checking the area, 2 adult males were found involved in a struggle in the street near 3700 S. Verde Vista. Upon seeing officers, the suspect ran south on Verde Vista, towards the residence he was staying in. Officers learned this subject was creating a disturbance at this residence, and was possibly under the influence of a controlled substance. The suspect again struggled with family members, who were trying to keep him from entering the residence. When officers attempted to handcuff the suspect, he became unresponsive. Officers immediately began to render first aid, and requested medical assistance. The suspect was transported by ambulance to Kaweah Delta Medical Center, where he was declared deceased. The cause of death is under investigation, and the Tulare County Sheriff's Department is handling the investigation.
