Details: On June 13th, 2017 at approximately 6:11 PM, Officers with the Visalia Police Department were dispatched to the 3800 block of W. Howard regarding a fight and possible assault with a deadly weapon occurring at the victim's residence. As officers arrived in the area, a subject matching the description of the suspect was detained and later identified as Eduardo Jarquin. During the investigation, it was discovered that Jarquin arrived at the victim's residence regarding a previous dispute. When the victim refused to answer the door, Jarquin kicked the door in and began searching the residence for the victim. While doing so, Jarquin took property belonging to the victim. Jarquin eventually located the victim and began to assault him. The victim fled to a neighbor's house where Jarquin continued to assault him until the neighbor scared Jarquin away. Jarquin was later booked at the Tulare County Pretrial Facility for Burglary, Assault with a Deadly Weapon, Robbery and Vandalism.

Arresting / Investigating Officer: Officer Meier and Officer Carsten

Supervisor: Sgt. Ford
