On 10/09/17 at 0206 hours, patrol officers were dispatched to Walgreens in regards to a Commercial Burglary in progress. It was found that four suspects had used a crowbar to break into the front door of the business. Once inside, the suspects went to the pharmacy section of the store and tried to gain access by using the crowbar to smash a window. The suspects could not make entry and they fled the store in a vehicle. The suspect vehicle was located by a patrol officer in the area of Akers/Mineral King. After a traffic stop, all four suspects were taken into custody, without incident. Evidence was located within the vehicle linking them to the burglary. They were also identified by surveillance video from inside the store. All four suspects were booked for 459 PC, Commercial Burglary, and 182 PC, Conspiracy. The suspects are all from the Los Angeles area.
