Details: On the listed date and time, Visalia Police Department patrol officers were dispatched to a robbery which had just occurred. The reporting party indicated a male, later identified as Daniel Martinez, and a female later identified as Brisa Vizairo, had stolen items from the business and fled on foot. Employees from the business attempted to detain them at which time Martinez produced a knife. Patrol officers responded to the area and located both Martinez and Vizairo. Three separate employees positively identified Martinez and Vizairo as the ones responsible for the crime. Martinez and Vizairo were both booked into the Tulare County Pre Trial facility for robbery and conspiracy.
