Details: On 6-2-19 at 0110 hrs. officers were dispatched to the listed business in regards to an audible burglary alarm. Upon arrival, officers noticed that it appeared there had been a roof entry made to the business. Officers set up a perimeter around the building and observed a suspect walking on the roof of the business. Visalia Fire Department responded and assisted in getting the suspect down from the roof. Officers and VPD K-9 was then utilized to search the rest of the roof and a second suspect was located and taken into custody without incident. During the search of the roof and business, officers located several burglary tools and a loaded firearm in the suspect's backpack. Both suspects were booked at the Juvenile Detention Facility on multiple charges.
