Details:

On 9-11-20 at 8:37am, Visalia PD dispatch received a call from a resident who was remotely monitoring their home surveillance system. The caller observed a subject break into their home located in the 600 block of West Grove.

A short time later, officers arrived at the residence and confronted the suspect, Jesus Roque, as he tried to exit through a window. Roque retreated into the residence and refused repeated orders to exit. With the assistance of a police K9, officers entered the residence and located the suspect hiding in a closet. Roque was arrested and booked at the Tulare County Adult Pre-Trial Detention Facility for residential burglary and resisting arrest.
