Details: On October 11, 2020, at 1840 hours, officers were dispatched to the area of Walnut and Mc Auliff for a traffic collision. Upon arrival, a witness stated a grey Toyota minivan, driven by Brett Eymard, was traveling southbound on Mc Auliff, and ran the stop sign. The Toyota struck a grey Honda SUV traveling westbound on Walnut. The collision caused the Honda to collide into a red Dodge pickup truck that was waiting to turn northbound onto Mc Auliff from Walnut.

Eymard, the Toyota's sole occupant, was evaluated and arrested for driving under the influence. He sustained minor injuries and was treated at KDMC prior to being booked at Tulare County Pre Trial. The occupants of the Honda, driver and minor children, sustained moderate injuries and were transported to KDMC for treatment. The occupants of the Dodge were uninjured.

If anyone has information regarding this incident, they are urged to call the Visalia Police Department at (559) 734-8116.
