Details: On 01/08/22 the Visalia Police Department responded to three separate residential burglaries throughout the morning. A total of three suspects were arrested for residential burglary.

The first incident occurred at approximately 0645 hours in the 2400 block of N Jacob St. Homeowners reported finding a man rummaging through their kitchen. It appears the suspect entered through an unlocked door. The suspected attempted to flee with property. The suspect was located in a nearby apartment complex after neighbors reported a broken window in a vacant apartment. The suspect was identified by the victim and through video surveillance as being responsible for the burglary. The suspect was arrested and identified as Damauria Dilworth. Dilworth was booked on charges of burglary.

The second incident occurred at 1030 hours in the 1400 block of W. Noble. The victims reported an unknown man was found cooking in the kitchen when they arrived home. The suspect retreated into the house when confronted. It is believed the suspect entered the residence through an unlocked door or a pet door. Officers conducted a search of the residence and located the suspect. The suspect had stolen food and was unknown to the victims. The suspect was arrested and identified as Guillermo Salmeron. Salmeron was booked on charges of burglary.

The third incident occurred at 1156 hours in the 1600 block of E. Beech. A neighbor reported seeing an unfamiliar subject in the backyard of a residence. As officers arrived on scene to check on the residence, the suspect attempted to reverse out of the garage in the victim's vehicle. The suspect surrendered to officers peacefully. The suspect was unknown to the victim. It is believed the suspect entered the home through an unlocked door. The suspect was arrested and identified as Ethan Moore. Moore was booked on charges of burglary and auto theft.
