Details:

On 3/6/23, at 10:25 p.m., an officer with the Visalia Police Department attempted a traffic stop on a stolen vehicle near the intersection of E. Shannon Pkwy and N. Court St. The vehicle failed to yield to the officer's emergency lights and siren and a short pursuit ensued. The vehicle drove into the grass area of Fairview Village Park where three occupants abandoned the vehicle and fled on foot into a residence on the 2400 Blk of N. Highland St. All three juvenile occupants were located by responding officers and taken into custody. They were later transported to the Tulare County Juvenile Detention Facility.
