Details:

On 3/8/23, at 1:52 a.m., an officer with the Visalia Police Department attempted a traffic stop on a vehicle near the intersection of S. Cain St. and E. Mineral King Ave. The vehicle failed to yield to the officer's emergency lights and siren and a pursuit ensued. The pursuit continued to the area of Oval Park where the vehicle drove into the park and became disabled after striking a tree. Two occupants exited and fled on foot into the surrounding area. Both juvenile occupants were located by responding officers and taken into custody. No injuries were sustained during the incident and the juveniles were later transported to the Tulare County Juvenile Detention Facility.
