PROJECT DESCRIPTION

General Plan Amendment No. 2022-01 and Change of Zone No. 2022-02 together are a request by the Visalia Public Cemetery District to change the general plan land use and zoning designations of 16 parcels as described below:

- 15 properties totaling 3.33 acres from Low Density Residential / R-1-5 (Single Family Residential, 5,000 square foot minimum site area) to Public Institutional / QP (Quasi-Public).
- One property totaling 0.24 acres from Residential Medium Density / R-M-2 (Multi-Family Residential, 3,000 sq. ft. minimum site area per dwelling unit) to Public Institutional / QP (Quasi-Public).

Properties to be reclassified are identified in the Site Plans in Exhibit "A". Per the Operational Statement in Exhibit "B", the reclassification to Public Institutional / QP is requested to permit usage of the parcels for cemetery operations and burial sites, activities which are prohibited in residential zones but are conditionally permitted in the QP zone. All 16 sites proposed for reclassification are owned by the Cemetery District.

As depicted in the Phasing Plan in Exhibit "A", if the project is approved, the Cemetery District would begin utilizing rezoned properties under its ownership within the "current phase" immediately. The "current phase" consists of those sites at the southwest quadrant of the cemetery, east of North Rinaldi Street, between West Goshen Avenue and West Grove Street. The remaining sites under Cemetery District ownership would be developed over the span of two to 10 years for the sites south of Sady Court/Allen Avenue, and longer for Cemetery District owned sites north of those streets. The use of some cemetery owned and rezoned properties is also affected by limitations applied to the original master plan document (Conditional Use Permit No. 2005-08). This aspect of the project is discussed in further detail in the "2005 Visalia Public Cemetery District Land Use Plan" section of the staff report.

Eight of the properties to be reclassified are vacant, including the sole R-M-2 site, located at the northeast corner of West Goshen Avenue and North Rinaldi Street. The remaining eight parcels contain single or multi-family development, encompassing a total of 15 residential units. Note that nine of the 15 units are within an existing multi-family complex located at the northeast corner of North Rinaldi Street and West Sady Court. Per the applicant, there is no set date for when existing residential units on Cemetery District owned properties will be removed, as it is dependent on burial trends and compliance with conditions of the master plan. The applicant notes that demolition of residential structures would occur over a long period of time at staggered intervals, so as to prevent the sudden loss of all 15 units.

Conditional Use Permit No. 2023-02 is a request to expand the master plan boundary of the Visalia Public Cemetery that was established in 2005 via Conditional Use Permit No. 2005-08. The master plan boundary establishes areas in which the Cemetery District can acquire property for the eventual expansion of the Visalia Public Cemetery.

The existing and proposed master plan boundaries are depicted in Exhibit "A" (shown above). Expansion would encompass 13 properties totaling 2.8 acres. Twelve of the properties are located on the east side of North Turner Street, between West Allen Avenue and West Roosevelt Avenue, and contain single-family residences. Only one property within this proposed expansion area (1004 North Turner Street) is currently owned by the Cemetery District. The 13th site is located south of the cemetery at 1304 West Goshen Avenue and contains the still-in-operation Visalia Granite and Marble Works.

Per the Operational Statement in Exhibit "B", expansion is necessary for the Cemetery District to keep pace with community demand, and maintain sufficient area to allow for multiple services to occur without disruption between individual parties. Data submitted by the Cemetery District notes that available burial sites amount to 1,007 full body spaces and 450 ash spaces. The current availability is sufficient to serve the public for another eight years. Expansion of the master plan boundary will assist in increasing capacity, allowing the cemetery to offer services in a wider geographical area, for a longer period of time. The proposed expansion area is also designed to maintain a concentric growth pattern in line with previous expansions. Please note, per the applicant, the Cemetery District only attempts to acquire properties within the master plan boundary when they are put up for sale. Properties are purchased at fair market value and mechanisms such as eminent domain have never been employed to acquire properties.

Additional circulation improvements within the cemetery are also proposed and are discussed in further detail within the “Access and Circulation” section of this report. The original land use plan and master plan boundary map approved via Conditional Use Permit No. 2005-08 are included as Exhibits “C” and “D”.

RELATED PROJECTS

The Visalia Public Cemetery District previously requested an expansion to its facilities in 2005 via the following projects:

General Plan Amendment No. 2005-04, a request to change the general plan land use designations on approximately two acres from Low Density Residential, Medium Density Residential, High Density Residential and Shopping Office Commercial to Public Institutional.

Change of Zone No. 2005-03, a request to change the zoning on approximately 2 acres from R-1-6, R-M-2, R-M-3 and C-SO to QP (Quasi Public).

Conditional Use Permit No. 2005-08, a request to allow the expansion of the existing cemetery, allow the relocation of an existing maintenance facility, and adopt a Master Plan for a cemetery in the QP Zone.

The proposal was approved by the Visalia Planning Commission on May 9, 2005, and by the Visalia City Council on July 18, 2005.

PROJECT EVALUATION

Staff supports the requested General Plan Amendment, Change of Zone, and Conditional Use Permit based on project consistency with the General Plan, Zoning Ordinance, and Visalia Public Cemetery District master plan.

General Plan Consistency and Land Use Compatibility

Land Use Element/General Plan/Zoning

The Land Use Element of the 2014 Visalia General Plan does not include specific objectives or policies related to the cemetery. Section 2.13 (Institutional & Civic) of the Land Use Element only refers to cemeteries as “...important elements of community-building.” Visalia Municipal Code Chapter 17.52 (Quasi-Public Zone) notes that the QP zone is appropriate “...to allow for the location of institutional, academic, community service, governmental, and nonprofit uses.” The Public Institutional land use designation and QP zoning classification are seen as appropriate classifications for the project sites as they will be employed for burial purposes, a service of universal public utility with importance in the community as a place of mourning and remembrance.

Housing Element

The proposal will result in the reclassification of 16 cemetery owned properties from residential zonings to a QP zoning. There are 15 active residences on the project sites to be rezoned, which will eventually be removed by the Cemetery District should the proposal be approved. Expansion of the master plan boundary will affect 12 existing single-family residences located along the east side of Turner Street between Roosevelt and Allen Avenues. However, since only one property within that area is owned by the Cemetery District (1004 North Turner Street), no immediate impacts are expected on the existing housing units located within the proposed expansion area of the Cemetery District master plan.

The 2020-2023 City of Visalia Housing Element was adopted by the Visalia City Council on December 3, 2019. The Housing Element provides policies encouraging housing affordability and identifies sites for the development of affordable housing. None of the sites listed in the project proposal are identified in the Housing Element site inventory list, nor are they deed restricted for affordability. As such, the Housing Element does not contain policies that would restrict demolition of housing on the project sites. As it stands, VMC regulations would not prohibit the demolition of residential units, even on multifamily properties, if a property owner chose to remove them. So, while the proposal would represent a reduction in the housing stock of the area, existing regulations and policies do not prohibit its removal. Furthermore, the resulting reduction in housing would not cause a significant change to the City’s housing stock.

2005 Visalia Public Cemetery District Land Use Plan

Land Use Plan Consistency

The land use plan and boundary maps (i.e., master plan) previously approved in 2005 are included as Exhibits “C” and “D”. The current proposal to amend the master plan is largely in conformance with the original master plan. The 2005 master plan encourages the reclassification of sites acquired by the Cemetery District to QP / Public Institutional. Fifteen of the 16 sites currently proposed for reclassification are located within the 2005 master plan boundaries. The sole parcel located outside of the 2005 master plan boundary (1004 North Turner Street) is the impetus for the master plan boundary expansion (CUP) proposed today. Four of the 16 properties proposed for reclassification (919 West Allen Avenue, 706 and 808 North Rinaldi Street, and 816 North Turner Street) were also identified in the original land use plan as “highest priority for acquisition”.

No changes to the policies in the original land use plan are proposed. As such, the CUP request is considered appropriate as it is largely consistent with the land use plan, directs growth in a concentric fashion, and facilitates increased services to the public over a longer period of time.

Land Use Plan Conditions of Approval

When the Cemetery District land use plan was approved in 2005, a number of conditions were applied via Planning Commission Resolution No. 2005-037 to prevent disorderly growth and impacts to occupants of residences adjacent to cemetery owned properties. The conditions are as follows:

- That a minimum of 300 contiguous feet of frontage along Rinaldi Avenue shall be acquired and developed by the Cemetery in order to conduct routine cemetery operations and burial plots on properties adjacent to the street. (Condition No. 1)
- That burial plots shall not be placed in single parcels or narrow gaps between active residential units. (Condition No. 3)
- That the Cemetery District shall amend their Master Plan (CUP No. 2005-08) or apply for a “Finding of Consistency” from the Planning Commission prior to the acquisition of properties not within the proposed 20 Year Master Plan area. (Condition No. 4)

The land use reclassification and master plan boundary expansion will bring existing Cemetery District owned properties into conformance with the overall cemetery complex and will assist in removing instances of spot zoning around the cemetery perimeter. Reclassification will also allow for use of the southwest quadrant of the cemetery for operations, as sufficient frontage will now be available to comply with the 300-foot contiguous frontage requirement. However, the proposal also has the effect of bringing other non-cemetery owned properties into closer proximity with cemetery operations. As such, there remains a need to carry over the above conditions to the new Conditional Use Permit. Staff recommends the following revisions to the conditions in the new Planning Commission Resolution No. 2023-007, so that they can address existing circumstances, namely expansion of the Cemetery District into Turner Street:

- That parcels owned and/or acquired by the Visalia Public Cemetery District along Rinaldi Avenue and Turner Street shall have a combined minimum of 300 feet of contiguous frontage along said street prior to the conducting of routine cemetery operations and burial plots on those properties adjacent to the street. (Condition No. 2).
- That burial plots shall not be placed in single parcels or narrow gaps (defined as having a lot width of 50 feet or less) between active residential units. (Condition No. 3)

- That the Visalia Public Cemetery District shall amend their master plan prior to the acquisition of properties not within the master plan boundary map in Exhibit “A.” (Condition No. 4)

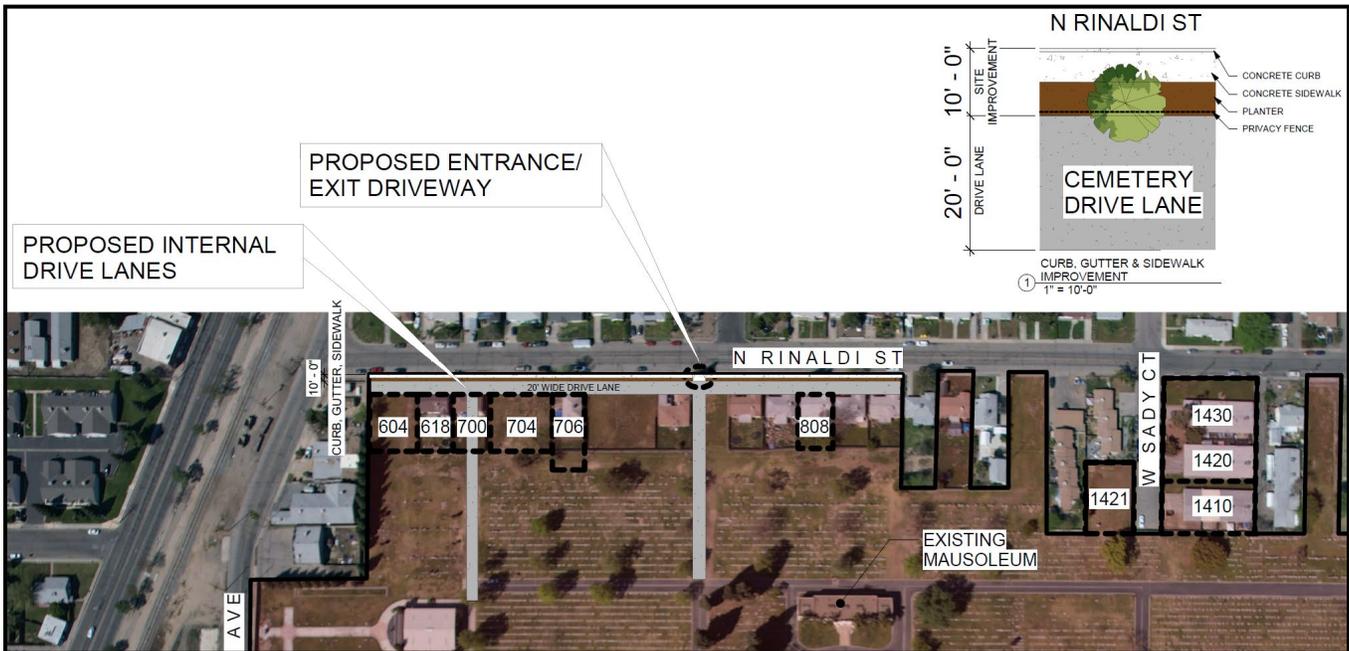

While application of the revised conditions won’t completely prevent cemetery operations from occurring adjacent to active residential units, they will prevent undue expansion of the cemetery complex, and prevent an active residence from being completely surrounded by cemetery operations.

Access and Circulation

Per Exhibit “A”, the proposal includes enhancement of internal cemetery circulation through the addition of a 20-foot-wide drive aisle and vehicular access drive along North Rinaldi Street, at the southwest cemetery quadrant (see figure below). Per the Phasing Plan in Exhibit “A”, the improvements will be installed immediately upon approval of the reclassification/boundary expansion project. The access aisle proposed along Rinaldi Street complies with development standards listed in the circulation section of the land use master plan.

The new vehicular driveway approach proposed along Rinaldi Street is not identified in the 2005 master plan. However, the addition is considered in keeping with the master plan, its design standards, and the established circulation layout of the cemetery. The addition provides a fourth entry point for the cemetery and will assist in preventing bottlenecks at the Giddings/Goshen main entrance, in particular when multiple services occur onsite.

It is anticipated that West Sady Court, between North Rinaldi Street and the cemetery, and North Turner Street, between West Roosevelt Avenue and 355 feet south of Grove Avenue, may require future rights-of-way abandonment upon further acquisition of properties by the Cemetery District. However, abandonment processes are not proposed with this action, as the Cemetery District has no immediate plans for those areas. Please note that abandonment of a public street is a separate process that requires approval by the Visalia City Council.

Public Comment

Public comment in opposition to the proposal was submitted by David Dye, property owner of 814 North Rinaldi Street, and is included in Exhibit "E". Mr. Dye's property is currently within the master plan boundaries but is not proposed for reclassification at this time. Mr. Dye notes that cemetery growth in the area has negatively affected the "community spirit" of the area, and has the effect of preventing investment in the neighborhood by property owners. Mr. Dye states that it feels like acquisition of his property by the Cemetery District is an eventuality. Mr. Dye also notes that the Cemetery District should instead address decreasing space issues through the acquisition of a second cemetery site.

As noted above, the property at 814 North Rinaldi Street is located within the boundary area of the 2005 master plan. Proposals for expansion of the master plan boundary would only affect areas along North Turner Street and West Goshen Avenue. Nothing in the master plan mandates that property owners sell their property to the Cemetery District. And as the applicant has stated, the Cemetery District has not used forcible means to acquire property.

Environmental Review

The requested action is considered exempt under Section 15061 (b) (3) of the State Guidelines for the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA). A Notice of Exemption has been prepared for the project because Section 15061 (b) (3) states that the project is exempted from CEQA if the activity is covered by the common-sense exemption, which means that CEQA applies only to projects that have the potential for causing a significant effect on the environment. Where it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the activity in question may have a significant effect on the environment, the activity is not subject to CEQA.

The proposed master plan boundary expansion, change in land use designation, and change in zoning classification will not in and of themselves have any effect on the environment. All proposals represent changes in administrative categorization with no physical effects.

Conditional Use Permit – Zoning Ordinance Section 17.38

17.38.010 Purposes and powers

In certain zones conditional uses are permitted subject to the granting of a conditional use permit. Because of their unusual characteristics, conditional uses require special consideration so that they may be located properly with respect to the objectives of the zoning ordinance and with respect to their effects on surrounding properties. In order to achieve these purposes and thus give the zone use regulations the flexibility necessary to achieve the objectives of this title, the planning commission is empowered to grant or deny applications for conditional use permits and to impose reasonable conditions upon the granting of such permits. (Prior code § 7525)

17.38.020 Application procedures

- A. Application for a conditional use permit shall be made to the planning commission on a form prescribed by the commission which shall include the following data:

17.38.030 Lapse of conditional use permit

A permit may be renewed for an additional period of one year; provided, that prior to the expiration of twenty-four (24) months from the date the permit originally became effective, an application for renewal is filed with the planning commission. The commission may grant or deny an application for renewal of a conditional use permit. In the case of a planned residential development, the recording of a final map and improvements thereto shall be deemed the same as a building permit in relation to this section. (Ord. 2001-13 § 4 (part), 2001: prior code § 7527)

17.38.040 Revocation

Upon violation of any applicable provision of this title, or, if granted subject to a condition or conditions, upon failure to comply with the condition or conditions, a conditional use permit shall be suspended automatically. The planning commission shall hold a public hearing within sixty (60) days, in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Section 17.38.080, and if not satisfied that the regulation, general provision or condition is being complied with, may revoke the permit or take such action as may be necessary to insure compliance with the regulation, general provision or condition. Appeals of the decision of the planning commission may be made to the city council as provided in Section 17.38.120. (Prior code § 7528)

(Prior code § 7530)

17.38.060 Conditional use permit to run with the land

A conditional use permit granted pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall run with the land and shall continue to be valid upon a change of ownership of the site or structure which was the subject of the permit application subject to the provisions of Section 17.38.065. (Prior code § 7531)

17.38.065 Abandonment of conditional use permit

If the use for which a conditional use permit was approved is discontinued for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days, the use shall be considered abandoned and any future use of the site as a conditional use will require the approval of a new conditional use permit.

17.38.070 Temporary uses or structures

 8. Notwithstanding underlying zoning, temporary conditional use permits may be granted for fruit and vegetable stands on properties primarily within undeveloped agricultural areas. In reviewing applications for such stands, issues of traffic safety and land use compatibility shall be evaluated and mitigation measures and conditions may be imposed to ensure that the stands are built and are operated consistent with appropriate construction standards, vehicular access and off-street parking. All fruits and vegetables sold at such stands shall be grown by the owner/operator or purchased by said party directly from a grower/farmer.

- C. The applicant may appeal an administrative decision to the planning commission. (Ord. 9605 § 30 (part), 1996: prior code § 7532)

17.38.110 Action by planning commission

- A. The planning commission may grant an application for a conditional use permit as requested or in modified form, if, on the basis of the application and the evidence submitted, the commission makes the following findings:
 - 1. That the proposed location of the conditional use is in accordance with the objectives of the zoning ordinance and the purposes of the zone in which the site is located;
 - 2. That the proposed location of the conditional use and the conditions under which it would be operated or maintained will not be detrimental to the public health, safety or welfare, or materially injurious to properties or improvements in the vicinity.
- B. A conditional use permit may be revocable, may be granted for a limited time period, or may be granted subject to such conditions as the commission may prescribe. The commission may grant conditional approval for a permit subject to the effective date of a change of zone or other ordinance amendment.

WHEREAS, the Planning Commission finds that the project is exempt from further review under the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) Guidelines section 15061(b)(3) (common sense exemption), as the proposed master plan boundary expansion, change in land use designation, and change in zoning classification will not in and of themselves have an effect on the environment.

Operations Statement

The Visalia Cemetery District's Mission is to provide burial services to families in a respectful and dignified manner. To achieve this goal, we need to expand the burial grounds providing various options for cremation and full body burial.

Noted on the site plan provided several of the lots are already zoned QP and our request is to bring the other lots into conformance with the 2005 Visalia Cemetery District Land Use Plan. We shall be able to expand the burial grounds as well as adhere to the 300 lineal feet of frontage which is allowed by code for burial sites. A list of Cemetery District owned properties by APN# is attached. The cemetery is not proposing a lot merger as their existing properties are not merged.

Also, as the cemetery expands, we need to enhance the internal circulation. We would install 1 thru driveway to Rinaldi noted on plans as "proposed driveway Entrance/Exit. This allows for funeral processions to arrive on site without all of them entering at the main gate to the south (Giddings). The cemetery already has south and east gates. Additionally, a new internal driveway as well as a driveway paralleling Rinaldi would be added to improve internal circulation.

The 2030 Long Range Land Use Plan Boundary does not fully extend beyond Turner. We are requesting that the Master Plan be extended as shown on the Site Plan as depicted in Blue. With the current data available there is enough capacity for about 8 years. More than 90% of the current capacity is on the west side (Rinaldi) of the cemetery. The available burial spaces currently are 1,007 full body spaces and 450 ash spaces. Expanding to the east side (Turner) is necessary to coordinate daily burials . The cemetery needs to have options for families to select sites in different quadrants of the cemetery. This would allow families time for the burial process without interruptions from the next procession. Our current plan would force our families to either overlap which is not an option, pick a different day or to change the time. This becomes very difficult when coordinating with different mortuaries and is also very difficult for our staff. Families like to witness the burial process until the last piece of sod is placed. The service may only last 30 – 45 minutes but if they would like to witness it could take another hour and a half to finish the process. Having different areas of the cemetery available helps us give the public options.

Expanding burial sites to another quadrant allowing for multiple site locations within the Cemetery for burials. Expanding into these areas is in the intent of expansion for the cemetery. It appears by expanding these boundaries would be more consistent than the existing plan as it draws a definitive line especially along Rinaldi and to the east of Turner.

Visalia Public Cemetery Land Use Plan

Part 1.

PLANNING FOR VISALIA PUBLIC CEMETERY EXPANSION

Because of rapidly changing trends in cemetery management and burial techniques, the Land Use Plan for Visalia Public Cemetery is designed to be "general and flexible," in nature rather than "specific and rigid." It is intended to be a guide for future expansion and development of the cemetery facility. In order to keep current with new trends towards cemetery operations, it is important that the Land Use Plan be reviewed periodically by the Cemetery Board of Directors and amended as necessary. This document addresses medium to long-range cemetery planning issues and policies, which cover 25 years and longer. However, a comprehensive review of the Plan should occur every five to ten years.

Webster's College Dictionary defines cemetery as "a burial ground for the dead." While that simple explanation may be true in general sense, most people evaluate the cemetery on the basis of its physical attributes, facilities, maintenance and administration. From the perspective of those that are left behind, the cemetery is actually for the living. When selecting a cemetery, one should consider the cemetery's beauty, appearance, and upkeep. Does it have an air of permanence, suggesting good administration? Other factors to consider include interment options, lot selections, aftercare services, and space to accommodate future generations.

In expanding the Visalia Public Cemetery, decisions must be made as to whether new development will be along "traditional" lines, allowing monuments, or of park or garden plan, permitting only flush monument sections, or a combination of the two. Since flush memorials require less space than monuments, lots can be smaller and the grave space per acre yield in non-monument gardens is greater than monument cemeteries. There are three primary considerations when determining the type of development to be undertaken:

- Demand. Public preference, or demand for: monument lots or flush memorial lots; cremation; interment; or above-ground mausoleum burial.
- Supply. The available supply of monument and non-monument land available in the cemetery.
- Management. The relationship between the type of development and the cemetery management's attitudes in reacting to current burial trends.

Local Trends in Cemetery Burials

Cemetery burial techniques and public preferences are changing rapidly in Visalia as it is in many other areas. In recent years, Visalia Public Cemetery land has been absorbed for burial space at a much slower pace than in the past. Cremation burials (60%) are now the prevalent choice over conventional casket burials because of reduced expense and, as a result, of recent Catholic acceptance of cremations. Cremations may now represent only 15% to 20% of the cost of a casket funeral. Also, about 65% of casket gravesites currently have companion burials, with two persons interred in the same gravesite. It is also becoming more common to inter four cremations in a regular gravesite, which further reduces burial costs and the absorption of cemetery land. Typically, a regular gravesite in the Visalia Public Cemetery measures 4' wide by 10' long, while an ash gravesite measures 4' wide by 4' long.

Based on a recent audit, the Visalia Public Cemetery is currently experiencing approximately 500 burials per year. However, due to an increase in multiple burials, regular gravesites are being sold at an average rate of less than 210 per year.

Visalia Cemetery Historical Background

The City of Visalia is the oldest incorporated City between Los Angeles and Stockton. The area was first settled in the late 1840's. In 1852, a group of settlers built a fort and named it "Fort Visalia," after early settler Nathaniel Vise. Visalia was also incorporated in 1852, the same year Tulare County was created. In 1862, during the Civil War, Camp Babbitt, comprised of three companies of Union soldiers, was established at the southwest corner of Bridge and Race Streets in Visalia. At that time, Visalia's population was estimated at 1500 persons. The first formal cemetery in Visalia was set up in 1854 on Locust Street between Race and Murray Streets and was called the "All Hallows Eve" Cemetery. The Cemetery was then moved in 1863 to its present location at Giddings Street between Goshen and Houston Avenues.

The earliest cemetery records are lost, but records that are more complete have been kept since 1875. The Visalia Cemetery was first incorporated in 1916. It is estimated that nearly 40,000 persons have been buried at the current Visalia Public Cemetery site, which now comprises approximately 68 acres of plotted land.

Cemetery Expansion and Recent Land Acquisition

Based on current burial trends, the Visalia Public Cemetery estimates that there is enough space existing in the 68 acres of plotted cemetery grounds to accommodate burials to the year 2030. In addition, the District owns a total of twenty-one adjacent residential and vacant parcels, which are planned for future cemetery use. Eleven of these parcels have frontage on Rinaldi Street, five have frontage on Turner Street and two have frontage on Goshen Avenue, and two are currently used by the cemetery for burials and dirt storage. These sites are described as follows:

Long Range Expansion and Acquisition Plans

It is the policy of the Visalia Public Cemetery Board to pursue the acquisition and purchase of adjacent properties for future expansion. In order to implement a "Long Range Land Use Plan for the Cemetery," the following neighboring properties are considered as having the highest priority for acquisition:

Zoning and General Plan Designations

The Visalia Public Cemetery is currently zoned (Q.P.) Quasi Public and the General Plan Designation is Public Institutional. As the Cemetery expands, it is appropriate that the acquired parcels be consistent with the City Plans and that they be rezoned to Q.P. and the General Plan Designations be amended to Public Institutional as necessary.

Part 2.

ELEMENTS OF THE CEMETERY LAND USE PLAN

Cemetery District Management

The Visalia Public Cemetery District has a five member Board of Directors that is appointed by the Tulare County Board of Supervisors for overlapping two-year terms. Directors are eligible for reappointment. The Cemetery Staff includes the District Manager, an administrative assistant, a receptionist, and five maintenance personnel. The Cemetery is open from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. daily.

The Visalia Public Cemetery District covers an approximately 215 square-mile area of Tulare County. Cities and Communities served include Visalia, the largest city in Tulare County and the smaller, unincorporated areas of Goshen, Packwood, Chatham, Ivanhoe, Elbow Creek, Taurus, Stone Corral, and Union. This area contains about 40% of the population of Tulare County. However, annual tax revenues generated by the District amount to slightly more than $38,000. Many rural cemeteries serve districts, which have smaller populations, but generate much greater revenue because the state laws relating to Cemetery taxes are based on land area served and not population.

Land Use Plan Elements

The Cemetery Land Use Plan consists of several planning principals, objectives and goals, which will assure continuity in future cemetery land use design and development. These elements will be reviewed periodically by the District Board of Directors and amended periodically as required.

Office / Administration Building

The main office and administrative building will remain at its current location located just north of the main gate near Goshen Avenue. The existing Main Office / Administration Building was expanded in 2004. The addition consists of a two-story building housing a combined conference room / family privacy meeting room and storage.

Maintenance Facility

The existing Maintenance Facility, including shop, vehicle and equipment storage, landscape materials storage and other maintenance activities will be relocated from the existing area northwest of the administrative office, to a new location on the properties known as the "Weddle" parcel east of the Miller Memorial Chapel. The new maintenance site is currently vacant. Preliminary plans call for restricted access from Goshen Avenue with limited access to the cemetery from Turner Street, north of Miller Memorial site.

Chapels and Memorial Services

Within the City of Visalia, funerals are arranged and accommodated by several privately owned memorial chapels and facilities. The District owns and maintains a small chapel within the Cemetery at the corner of Main Street and 2nd Street. Some consideration may be given regarding the future acquisition of the Church of God properties at the northeast corner of Turner Avenue and Grove Street. This facility is adjacent to the cemetery and could meet future needs to provide memorial services for larger funeral groups.

Cemetery Plot Design

Acquisition of the 13 previously described residential properties (see page 5), along with the 21 properties currently owned by the Cemetery, should result in approximately seven (7.00) acres of additional burial site land. Both monument gardens and non-monument garden areas will be maintained and traditional sections will be expanded as needed.

Mausoleums

A mausoleum is a stately structure intended for above ground burials. The Visalia Public Cemetery is unique in that it is the only Cemetery in California that is allowed by state law to own its mausoleum. The Cemetery has two mausoleums – the old mausoleum, constructed in the late 1920's, and the newer mausoleum, which was constructed by the City of Visalia and deeded to the Cemetery District in the mid 1960's along with the Visalia Memorial Gardens. These structures may be maintained and even expanded in the future. However, with the exception of the Visalia Public Cemetery, state law prohibits public cemeteries from constructing or owning a mausoleum.

Mortuaries and Crematory Services

Cremation services are provided by several of the local mortuaries and funeral homes. Public cemeteries, by law, are not permitted to own their own mortuaries or provide cremation services.

Special Land Marks and Memorial Areas

Several special areas have been provided on the cemetery grounds. Located just east of the main gate to the cemetery, the "Eagles Niche" is a special place where cremation remains are placed and offers an aesthetic and serene place for contemplation. The "Eagles Niche" and the "Blue Star Memorial," which was donated by the Visalia Garden Club are surrounded by a Memorial Rose Garden. Also nearby is a scattering garden and a baby land area. The "Fireman's Memorial" is located across from the chapel at the northeast corner of Main Street and 2nd Street in the cemetery. The "Memorial Gardens" are situated south of the old City mausoleum on Main Street. Funds are now being solicited from donations and gifts for the construction of a "Veteran's Memorial Wall" to be located to the south and across the street from the Memorial gardens. The $750,000 memorial walls will honor the lives of the local military heroes and display the pride Visalia has toward its veterans.

Circulation and Access

The design standards for streets and circulation within the cemetery are expected to remain essentially unchanged in the future. The intent is to accommodate funeral services with a minimum of disruption. The following principals of design will be maintained within the cemetery grounds:

Entrances:

- Retain limited public access to the main gate at Giddings and Goshen.
- Retain limited access gate for maintenance / emergencies at Turner Street.
- After the new maintenance facilities are developed at the Weddle site on Goshen, construct a new maintenance gate at Turner Street adjacent and north of Miller Funeral Chapel.
- Retain the pedestrian entrance at the north end of the cemetery.

Road Widths:

Maintain existing roadway width standards at 20' and 25' for minor roads and 30' for major roads.

On-Road Parking:

Retain policy of parallel road parking on interior streets for burial services.

Storm Drainage:

Retain rolled curbs at edges of paved streets with drainage to Goshen Avenue storm drain.

Re: General Plan Amendment No. 2022-01
Change of Zone No. 2022-02
Conditional use Permit No. 2023-02
Hearing Date: March 27, 2023

Dear Visalia City Planning Commission:

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to express my opinion regarding the Visalia Public Cemetery District's ("VPCD") expansion plans and their above-referenced requests.

My name is David Dye. I am 66 years of age and have lived at 814 North Rinaldi Street since I was 3. I grew up here, learned to play sports here with my brother and other neighborhood kids and learned to swim in my neighbor's pool.

I can show you where each of our pets are buried. My parents, who purchased this residence in May of 1960, have both passed and are buried in the cemetery approximately 80 feet due east of the back fence of the property. Their plot was specifically selected to keep them close to home.

This residence, now my residence, is NOT one of the residences affected by the VPCD's current expansion request - yet. But due to the number of homes on Rinaldi Street that have been removed in the past years, I hardly feel comfortable. Should I spend the time and money painting my house, if needed? Or putting on a new roof? Or would that be a senseless waste of time and money?

There used to be a solid community spirit in this neighborhood. It is still there but it has certainly waned over the years as the neighborhood has shrunk.

It is evident that decreasing space is a significant issue for the VPCD. It is also obvious that purchasing surrounding residential properties near the cemetery is a short-term solution to a much bigger issue. Visalia is a fast-growing city that will continue to grow. There is a clear need for a second cemetery to supplement the current cemetery site, a site that was developed many generations ago when Visalia's population was a minute fraction of its current population. Please stop tearing down our homes and invest in a long-term solution to VPCD's needs by investing in a new parcel of land for a second cemetery.

Respectfully,

David Dye
