HAPPENING NOW: VPD On Scene of a Plane Crash

Around 9:40 p.m, VPD officers were called to the Visalia Airport for a report of a plane crash. When officers arrived, they were told a privately owned airplane was taking off when suddenly the plane crashed into the runway.

The pilot was the only occupant in the airplane and thankfully was not injured.

The cause of the crash appears to be equipment failure.

We will keep you updated as we receive more information.
