Burglar Arrested After Running onto Highway 198 Fleeing from Police

Just before 6:00 a.m. yesterday morning, VPD officers were called to a home in the 700 block of East Cypress Avenue for a report of a burglary. Video surveillance showed 36-year-old Jacob Myer entering the garage of the home and stealing items.

Around 3:40 p.m., Myer was found in the area of Sequoia Avenue and Sante Fe Street. When officers attempted to contact him, he ran onto Highway 198. A perimeter was established, and Myer was found hiding in an embankment.

Myer was arrested and transported to Kaweah Health for minor injuries. He was booked at the Tulare County Pre-Trial Facility for burglary and resisting arrest.

The Visalia Property Crimes Unit made contact at a home associated with Myer and found several items the suspect stole from the Cypress home. The items were returned to the victim.
