25-Year-Old Man Arrested for Breaking into Visalia Home, Attacking Homeowner

Just after 7:30 p.m., VPD officers were called to the 900 block of South Mooney Boulevard for a report of a home invasion. When officers arrived, they were told a man forced his way into the home and began confronting and assaulting the homeowner.

The homeowner armed himself with a knife and the suspect tried to take it away. The victim was able to fight off the suspect and force him out of his home.

Officers searched the area and arrested 25-year-old Jesus Alcantar-Lopez.

Alcantar -Lopez was transported to Kaweah Health for his injuries. He will be booked at the Tulare County Pre-Trial Facility for burglary and assault with a deadly weapon once he is released.
