Visalia Man Arrested for Possessing Obscene Images of Minors

On July 9, 2024, the Visalia Police Department received a tip from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children about an individual downloading obscene photos of minors.

Detectives from the Youth Services Unit quickly launched an investigation and traced the tip to a residence in Visalia.

This morning, officers served a search warrant at a home in the 4100 block of West Nellis Avenue. They arrested 19-year-old Dario Gonzalez, who was identified as the individual responsible for downloading and viewing the obscene material.

Gonzalez has been booked into the Tulare County Pre-Trial Facility for possession of obscene images of minors.
