Man Arrested for Attempted Burglary on Main Street

Just before 9:30 p.m., VPD patrol officers responded to a report of suspicious activity at "Awards and Signs" on Main Street. The business owners reported seeing a man on their security cameras using bolt cutters to cut through their fence and attempt to break in.

Officers arrived on scene and took the suspect, 37-year-old Wesley Curtis, into custody without incident. He was found with burglary tools and has a prior burglary record.

Curtis was booked at the Tulare County Adult Pre-Trial Facility for burglary, vandalism, possession of burglary tools, and a no bail warrant.
