Response to Incident at Divisidero School

Around 10:20 a.m., VPD officers responded to Divisidero School for a possible threat after a report that a student had a gun in their backpack.

The school initiated a shelter-in-place while officers conducted a thorough investigation. No gun was found, and the threat was deemed non-credible.

The shelter-in-place has now been lifted.

Parents who would like to pick up their children may do so. Thank you for your understanding.
