HAPPENING OVERNIGHT: Visalia Man Assaulted in Armed Robbery by Teenagers

Around 11:15 p.m. last night, Visalia PD officers responded to reports of an armed robbery at Oak Avenue and Church Street. Officers discovered the victim had just withdrawn cash from the Bank of America on Main Street, when he was confronted by two teenagers armed with a knife and a bat.

The suspects struck the victim with the bat, stole his money, and fled the scene. Fortunately, the victim did not sustain major injuries and is reported to be okay.

Anyone with information is urged to contact the Visalia Police Department at 559-734-8117. To remain anonymous, call the tip line at 559-713-4738.
