Driver Arrested After Crashing into Visalia Home

Just before 2:20 p.m., Visalia Police responded to a call about a vehicle crashing into a home in the 1700 block of West Tulare Avenue. The driver and passenger fled the scene before officers arrived.

Fortunately, no one inside the home was injured, although the property sustained significant damage.

Officers located the driver nearby and identified him as 23-year-old Alfredo Rodriguez-Zavala. He was arrested on charges of hit-and-run, driving without a license, and a misdemeanor warrant. Rodriguez-Zavala will be booked at the Tulare County Adult Pre-Trial Facility.
