Visalia Man Arrested for Possession of Child Sexual Abuse Material

On February 6, 2025, Visalia PD Youth Service Officers received a tip from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children regarding a Visalia resident downloading child sexual abuse material. After a thorough investigation, officers identified 26-year-old Adam Lopez as the suspect.

Today, detectives located and arrested Lopez in the 200 block of North Hall Street. He was taken into custody for possession of obscene images of minors and booked into the Tulare County Adult Pre-Trial Facility.
